Part III, Line 4 - Collections and Relation to Exempt Purpose

Part III Line 1a and Part III Line 4:

The Organization's collections are made up of horological artifacts and research materials of historical significance that are held for educational, research, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is preserved and cared for and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from from their sales to be used to acquire other items for the collection. As of March 31, 2011, the insurance coverage in effect for items in the collection amounted to $9,000,000.

Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses for Endowment Funds

The endowment assets consist of three funds, the earnings of which are restricted to benefit the school of horology, the watch and clock museum and the library research center.

Part X - Liability Under FIN 48 Footnote

The organization's most significant tax position is that it is exempt from payment of federal and state income taxes. Accordingly, income tax expense has not been reported on the financial statements.
