

National Watch & Clock

MUSEUM

October 22 ~ 25, 2009

We're Going Time Traveling!

The National Watch and Clock Museum invites you to join them in a very special experience! Located in the town of Columbia, Pennsylvania in beautiful Lancaster County, participants will be treated to three days of “special.”

Begin with a fine dinner at your full service hotel in Lancaster including two lounges—one in a tree! Here your host will introduce you to the days of touring that will follow.

The National Watch and Clock Museum has put together a half day of touring the museum, studying the collection and the storing of it. They have planned a catered luncheon in the rotunda of the museum and then a tour of the School of Horology.

Next there will be a “Behind the Scenes” tour at the unusual York Heritage Agricultural & Industrial Museum. Participants will see and handle artifacts that are not on display to the general public!

Members will meet the famous du Pont family in the Brandywine Valley and be treated to special tour at the Hagley Museum and Library, the original home of the du Ponts and the gun powder works founded in 1802. This unique museum will rollout the red carpet for you

Participants savor a local winery and experience some of the local culture with a private Farmland tour of south central Pennsylvania as well as local PA Dutch food!

Be assured that you cannot have this experience any other way!!! Everything is in place, all you need to do is register. Do it today!!! Space will be limited to one motorcoach.

The price of this trip is as follows: Heritage Hotel $519.00, (Prices are per person, double occupancy) Price without lodging $370.00. The price includes motorcoach transportation, lodging for four days/three nights, full breakfasts, two lunches, three dinners, special behind-the-scenes tour at York County Heritage Agricultural & Industrial Museum, all admission fees to museums, wine samplings at a local winery, Farmland tour wineries, tip for driver, all taxes and gratuities.

To register, fill out the form and return with $100.00 deposit per person. Balance due September 10, 2009. Mail to Noel Poirier, National Watch and Clock Museum, 514 Poplar Street, Columbia, PA 17512-2130 Questions? Call 717 684-8261.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Rooming with: _____ Number of seats: _____

Amount enclosed (or to be charged to) CIRCLE ONE: VISA—MC—DISCOVER $ _____

Card # _____ Exp Date: _____

Name on the card: _____ Signature: _____